

Use Of One Calibration Target For Certification

As agreed by the informal Working Group on Certification, States Parties state their intention to adhere to the following principle with regard to calibration targets for the certification of optical and video sensor configurations.

During the briefing prior to the commencement of the in-flight examination of the sensors, each certifying State Party will identify the calibration target it will use during the certification.